I love it because...

1. This customer favourite is made from 100% Chardonnay from a single vineyard.
2. Its rich, buttery texture is balanced with notes of peach, pineapple, and citrus acidity.
3. It's a delightful pairing for lobster tails with drawn butter.

DELAMOTTE BLANC DE BLANCS BRUT CHAMPAGNE

... billowing aromas of brioche and baked apples. The flavors provide echoes of the scents, but on the palate, this isn't billowy at all, but rather taut and focused and linear in energy, with great drive and phenomenally long, symmetrical finish ... a wine with many distinct dimensions, all of which are somehow marvelously proportional in relation to one another. In gift box, AC, France

Offering up aromas of honeycomb, warm biscuits, red berries and spices, the just-released 2008 Extra Brut Celebris Rosé is full-bodied, ample and layered, with a concentrated, even expansive mid-palate; but if this Celebris Rosé leads with its voluminous core of fruit, it's its tangy spine of acidity and taut structure that dominate the bone-dry finish. JUSTIN CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2019

Paso Robles

... plum, black raspberry, black pepper, and oak bouquet with vanilla notes. On the palate, this full body wine is crisp and juicy with bright acidity. The flavor profile is a black raspberry, black licorice, dark chocolate, oak, and light black tea blend. I also noted dried herbs and cinnamon mixed in. On the finish, the dry tannins are on the slightly high side initially. They integrate once decanted then stick around before fading away ... [pair with] steak frites. This carmenere comes from vineyards planted 80 years ago in Apalta ... Carmenere ripens easily under the area's intense sun, but at Santa Rita, they prefer to harvest it early to extract more freshness from the grapes ... risking early harvests in search for redder fruits, without fear of the vegetal side that's generally associated with the variety. This one does have that herbal side, but there's also so much more here. Red fruits, spices, a smooth and juicy texture, and a medium body shaped by mouth-watering acidity. This classic Etna red has intense volcanic-lava character and an exciting interplay of fine tannins and restrained ripeness. More than enough red-cherry and redcurrant fruit to make this immediately appealing. Long, dry and mineral finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold. TUSCANY

BERTINGA SASSI CHIUSI 2017 IGT Toscana NEW
 ... 85% Sangiovese ... and 15% Merlot ... which spends four years in bottle before release. In 2017 the vines suffered an incredibly hot summer, but some September rain helped to cool things down and allowed ripening to complete. Herbal and balsamic with black and red fruit aromas, this is rich and grippy, ripe yet fresh, with some elegant menthol, touches of spice, and sapidity on the mid-palate giving a sculpted feel. Light on its feet, this is a delightful wine with a gorgeous blueberry finish. Drinking window: 2023-2032. Score: 93 (James Button, decanter.com, March 6, 2023)

LA VITE LUCENTE 2021 IGT Toscana (Tenuta Luce)
 Rich cherries, cassis, fresh olives and dark spices. Svelte, fine tannins on the medium- to full-bodied palate, showing lots of juicy berries and a linear, extensive finish. Excellent length, focus and structure here. Drink or hold [into the early 2030s]. Score: 94 (Zekun Shuai, jameessuckling.com, Sept. 2, 2023)

 Alluring aromas of lead pencil and currants with crushed stone and iodine. Full-bodied with hemmed in tannins that are tight and focused. PANZANELLO 1427 CHIANTI CLASSICO 2019 DOCG NEW
 I like the dark, almost broody character to this CC, which offers plenty of crushed black berries and currants, together with some forest-floor and smoky, almost coffee-grains character. Blends very nicely on the medium-bodied palate and both the fruity and savory elements latch onto the medium tannins nicely, to give good drive and decent length. Nicely controlled. This will be better after another year or so in bottle. Try from 2023 [or cellar until 2029]. Score: 93 (jameessuckling.com, Nov. 4, 2021)

SAN FELICE IL GRIGIO RISERVA CHIANTI CLASSICO 2019 Sustainable, DOCG
 Fairly complex, but still bright, with spiced red plums and cherries, bark, leather and a hint of mushroom savoriness. Quite integrated and silky with a medium to full body, rounded by firm but velvety tannins. Long, yet subtle and fruit-expressive. Already delicious now, but you should hold this for two years and wait for additional complexity to emerge. Score: 94 (Zekun Shuai, jameessuckling.com, Feb. 26, 2023)

TOMMASI CASISANO BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO 2017
DOCG

Lovely capture of fruit from the warm 2017 vintage that while over-stressed it is important to note each and every producer that found the way. To capture freshness and that honesty of sangiovese spirit, here from Montalcino's south and with fortuitous elevation to keep the acids and the energy alive. Well done Tommasi, what else to say. LE RAGOZE RECIO TO DELLA VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO 2020
DOCG

Recioto may be a wine that we seldom drink, but this is a style by which the quality of an estate was once measured, alongside the regular Valpolicella. Fire and brimstone tannins flecked with graphite and coffee bean. Cardamon and the exotic nuances of an Indian spice shop, encased within. An endless finish of consummate poise, freshness and latent power. Great wine. Drinkable now, but best from 2026. Score: 95 (Ned Goodwin, MW, james suckling.com, May 9, 2023)

MASI ANGELORUM RECIO TO DELLA VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO 2018
DOCG

This sweet passito-style red is made from dried grapes in a process similar to that used to produce Amarone. The grapes for Recioto wines are dried longer (up to 200 days), resulting in greater concentration, and the fermentation is stopped before the sugar is completely fermented. This example from the iconic Masi will evolve through the mid-2030s and perhaps longer.

LE RAGOZE RISERVA AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO 2011

Matured in large Slavonian oak, with a chord of dense, pliant tannins corralling riffs of mint, bitter cherry, sage, dried thyme and kirsch. A sheath of power, compressed by assiduous tannin management and a skein of uncanny freshness. The finish is sumptuous and driven. A bitter twist of quinine, herbal amaro and cardamon pod, with Indian spice and green olive accentuate this gorgeous expression. Drink or hold. History lesson

KNAPPSTEIN CLARE VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2020

Clare Valley, South Australia

Knappstein Enterprise Winery has been a driving force in Clare Valley wine since 1974, but this innovative producer's presence in this iconic region dates to 1878, when the Enterprise Brewery was built. This poised, finely textured, succulent, expressive, ageable Cabernet is perfect for celebrating that friendship that began before you met.
