Super for summer

SISTER'S RUN SUNDAY SLIPPERS CHARDONNAY 2024

McLaren Vale, South Australia

50154 (XD) 750 ml $18.95

McLaren Vale is known for sunny, generously ripe wines. This Chardonnay takes a restrained approach and showcases juicy nectarine, white peach, apricot and citrus with lovely, streamlining acidity and a hint of buttery oak. Pair with grilled chicken or cold turkey sandwiches.

BURGO VIEJO RESERVA 2020

DOCa Rioja, Spain

168823 (XD) 750 ml $19.95

100% Tempranillo. Exploding with ripe red cherry, cranberry and plum fruit which hurtles towards the finish, passing the toasty tannins and bracing acidity on its way. Creamy and long. Score: 95 (Decanter World Wine Awards, 2024)

WOULD YOU LIKE WINE WITH THAT?

Life moves fast, and sometimes you need to order in to get through that mid-week slump. But takeout night should be something more than convenient. It should be special – that's where wine comes in. Our buyers have picked a selection of wines, at a range of price points, that pair perfectly with popular takeout fare. Ding, ding. Order up!

BURGERS

Whether you order a beef or veggie burger, the toppings are key. You'll need a versatile red like Burgo Viejo Reserva 2020 or La Nerthe Les Cassagnes Côtes du Rhône-Villages 2023.

LA NERTHE LES CASSAGNES
CÔTES DU RHÔNE-VILLAGES 2023
AOP, Rhône, France

The tannins here are not too rigid, but they still cut through the fat of the meat. The bright fruit flavours, herbs and mixed spices augment the seasonings of the burger and the smoke and char flavours of the grill.

BURGO VIEJO RESERVA 2020

DOCa Rioja, Spain

Tempranillo's spice, herb and earth notes pair brilliantly with mushroom or black-bean burgers, because they create complementary flavours. This wine's acidity also allows it to work well with elements like ketchup, roasted veggies and pickles. Plus, the toasty oak matches well with the smoky tones from the grill.

CHINESE

Szechuan is often spicy, so think about pairing it with a wine with some sweetness, like Organized Crime Riesling 2024. But if you order milder dishes, go for a sparkler like Celene Améthyste Brut Crémant de Bordeaux or a surprising match like González Byass Nutty Solera Medium Oloroso Sherry.

GONZÁLEZ BYASS NUTTY SOLERA MEDIUM OLOROSO SHERRY
DO, Spain

Sherry with Chinese takeout? A question that demands a four-word answer: YES! YES! and YES! The oxidative nut, caramel and dried fruit notes of this Oloroso are perfect for soy-braised beef or chicken dishes. Just keep in mind the high alcohol of Sherry and avoid spicy foods.

ORGANIZED CRIME RIESLING 2024 🍷

VQA Beamsville Bench, Niagara
Escarpment, Ontario

The mild sweetness of this Ontario Riesling helps soften the salty character of soy and oyster sauce and takes the edge off the spicier elements in many Chinese dishes. Riesling is famously food-friendly and pairs with everything from sweet-and-sour pork to Kung Pao shrimp.

CELENE AMÉTHYSTE BLANC DE NOIRS BRUT CRÉMANT DE BORDEAUX

AOP, France, traditional method

Crémant de Bordeaux is a great way to elevate mid-week Chinese takeout, thanks in no small part to the wine's naturally high acidity. It's perfect for cutting through fatty meats like pork or duck and is a superb counterpoint for oil and thicker sauces.

FRIED CHICKEN

Fried chicken and fries make for a tasty, simple meal. But pair it with a Champagne like François Seconde Grand Cru Brut Rosé Champagne and you've got a scintillating, elevated dining experience. If you want a wine to keep the greasy goodness in check, Flat Rock Unplugged Unoaked Chardonnay 2024 or Meia Serra Dão Encruzado 2023 are great for keeping things lively and fresh.

MEIA SERRA DÃO ENCRUZADO 2023

DOC, Portugal, sustainable
(Casa Santos Lima)

Fried chicken is crispy and oily and needs a wine that can handle that. Encruzado has the generous, bright acidity to cut through that oil and stop the chicken from tasting greasy. And the minerality makes a delicious foil to the saltiness of the chicken and fries.

FRANÇOIS SECONDE GRAND CRU BRUT ROSÉ CHAMPAGNE

AOC, France, bottled Feb. 2024

Rosé Champagne might not be top of mind when you order fried chicken, but the pairing is electric. Champagne has the zesty character needed to keep the chicken from tasting greasy while refreshing and readying your mouth for the next crunchy bite.

FLAT ROCK UNPLUGGED UNOAKED
CHARDONNAY 2024 🍷

VQA Niagara Peninsula, Ontario,
Foundation Series, sustainable

Crisp, fresh, unoaked Chardonnays like this one have the lift and zest to cut through the oils and crunch of fried chicken. The citrus flavours add a nice splash of lemon, while the absence of oak influence means the wine won't overwhelm the dish.

INDIAN

Indian dishes, whether meat- or veggie-based, tend to be saucy, so you need wines with the acidity to handle them. For hotter curries, a sweeter wine such as Riesling will help tone down the spice. And for dishes with more moderate heat, something like Sidewood Shiraz 2022 will make a compelling match.

SIDEWOOD SHIRAZ 2022

Adelaide Hills, South Australia

Cool-climate Shiraz has the acidity to cut through creamier dishes like butter chicken, while the wine's gentle peppery character and clove notes make good complements to popular Indian spices such as cumin and garam masala. Shiraz pairs best with mildly spiced dishes.

TACOS

Tacos are nature's carryall. They can hold beef, pork, chicken or fish along with all the toppings that you want to pack in there. With such a range of flavours and spice levels in play, you'll want a wine with food-friendly acidity that can elevate the flavours or act as a palate-refresher. Try wines like Azevedo Loureiro Alvarinho 2024 or Jules Taylor Pinot Gris 2025. As a bonus, their characterful fruit will create an exciting taste interplay.

AZEVEDO LOUREIRO ALVARINHO 2024

DOC Vinho Verde, Portugal

Alvarinho's lime flavours work like a squeeze of citrus, while the acidity is fresh and mouth-watering. These attributes make it perfect for fish and also work with the other ingredients in the taco, like salsa, onions and cilantro. The moderate alcohol means it won't supercharge the hot-spice elements.

JULES TAYLOR PINOT GRIS 2025

Marlborough, South Island, New Zealand

For tacos, you need a wine with a bit of body and plenty of acidity as well as lifted aromatics to work with ingredients like onion and fresh herbs. This Marlborough Pinot Gris has a silky texture and the perfect mix of aromatics and fruit.

SUSHI

With a wide range of flavours and styles, sushi is a delightful option any day of the week. For a classic match, try Dewazakura Dewanosato Junmai Sake. You can also look to a white wine such as a dry Chenin Blanc, whose vibrancy, texture and complexity will work with the varied flavours. Or, if you want a bold, surprising dynamic, try a light, delicate Pinot Noir.

DEWAZAKURA DEWANOSATO JUNMAI SAKE

Yamagata, Japan

One of the easiest ways to make a great pairing is to match your beverage of choice with food from the region or country that produces it, like sushi and sake. Since they're made from the same main ingredient (rice) and share an umami character, they're naturally complementary.

Take the mystery out of wine pairings for takeout

- Try your favourite wines with your favourite foods. Wine is not an add-on to a meal, it's an integral part of the dining experience.
- Pair wines with foods or styles from the same region/country.
- Though your own preferences are always the most correct, a general rule is to pair light wines with lighter fare and heavier wines with bolder foods. This basic approach applies to both meat and vegetarian dishes.
- Takeout can be quite decadent, with many offerings leaning hard to the fried and oily sides, so wines with zesty acidity, freshness and lift will work best to cut through the richness and cleanse the palate.
- Mix and match upscale wines with casual takeout. Great wines make good meals superb!

THAI

For spicier Thai curries, go for off-dry wines such as Domaine Welty Bélénus Gewürztraminer 2023. The sweetness will help temper the heat of the food. For more aromatic and mildly spiced dishes, try aromatic whites like Mega Spileo Assyrtiko 2024, or wines that emphasize bright red fruit like Redstone Gamay Noir 2022.

REDSTONE GAMAY NOIR 2022

VQA Lincoln Lakeshore,
Niagara Peninsula, Ontario

Gamay's light body, gentle tannins and bright fruit give it excellent flexibility with food, particularly beef, chicken, pork or vegetarian stir-fries. It's best to avoid very spicy meals, as Gamay will amplify the spice rather than soothe it.

MEGA SPILEO ASSYRTIKO 2024

PGI Achaia, Greece

This Assyrtiko was partially fermented in oak, giving the wine some additional weight and depth. This, alongside the bold fruit, minerality and bright acidity, makes it a great match for the complex, generous flavours in Thai food. It will work beautifully as a palate-refresher and is ideal for green curries and seafood stir-fries.

PIZZA

Is there anything better than pizza? Something that awesome and fun deserves an equally fun, awesome wine, and Hinterland Borealis Rosé Mini Sparkling 2024 is just the ticket. You can make a gourmet pizza or a simple pepperoni pie pop with Viberti Giovanni La Gemella Barbera d'Alba 2023 or Quercecchio Brunello di Montalcino 2021.

HINTERLAND BOREALIS
ROSÉ MINI SPARKLING 2024 🍷
VQA Ontario, Charmat method

Bright, bouncy and fruity, this sparkling rosé is a great palate-cleanser and makes the pizza feel lighter as you eat it. The bubbles keep your mouth feeling engaged and fresh and, combined with the high acidity, mean that this wine will pair with everything from a vegetarian to a meat-lovers' pizza. And honestly, it's just fun.

VIBERTI GIOVANNI LA GEMELLA
BARBERA D'ALBA 2023

DOC, Piedmont, Italy, sustainable

The medium-bodied character of Barbera d'Alba makes it an easy match for pizza, which is never heavy in the way burgers can be. Barbera d'Alba is versatile and flexible, which means it will work with a variety of toppings. Meaty, veggie and spicy, it complements them all.

Feelin' Grü-vey

Wagram was granted its own DAC in 2022. LEFT: An Austrian autumn. TOP: Gardens in Rosenberg Castle.

Austria's signature white wine grape, Grüner Veltliner (GREW-ner velt-LEE-ner), is quite a character. Sure, it's got a bit of Sauvignon Blanc's herbaceous aromatics, a bit of Riesling's mineral expression, and a bit of Gewürztraminer's lively spice – but really, Grüner's got its own thing going on. Vibrant, food-friendly and best served lightly chilled, it's also perfect for summer. Here's your chance to check out Grüner from four different Austrian regions.

HIEDLER RIED THAL KAMPTAL GRÜNER VELTLINER 2024

DAC, Austria, sustainable

This exquisite wine is made from sustainably farmed estate vines ranging up to 80 years old. It opens with delicate flowers and fleshy white and yellow fruit followed by spicy white pepper and distinctive chalky mineral, all lifted by brilliant acidity. It's poised to evolve through at least 2036 and potentially beyond.

The steep, sunlit sandstone slopes of Kamptal are famous for their bold, complex wines. Wagram, with its unique loess terraces, yields intense, mineral wines. Traisental, an appellation in Niederösterreich that's shaped by the serene Traisen River, produces spicy, aromatic wines. And the warm, continental vineyards of Burgenland, near the Hungarian border, create richly fruity wines.

PERFECT POURS FOR BURGER NIGHT

It's peak grilling season, so get your local flavour on with these patio-perfect red and rosé wines from Niagara. We paired each one with a burger recipe from our summer issue of Food & Drink to get you started.

Niagara's outstanding 2020 vintage produced fruit of remarkable quality and ripeness. Creekside took full advantage of the vintage in crafting their Red Tractor from a blend of 47% Cabernet Sauvignon, 46% Merlot and 7% Cabernet Franc all sourced from sunny Niagara-on-the-Lake vineyards. Each variety was vinified separately in stainless steel before blending, after which the final blend aged for 16 months in oak barrels. Still beautifully balanced and full of lively fruit six years on, the wine showcases rich blackberry and black raspberry along with complex layers of forest floor, leather, chocolate and spice.

Wending Home built their 2021 Wending South from an eclectic blend of 38% Cabernet Franc, 32.4% Dornfelder, 24% Gamay and 5.6% Lemberger (a.k.a. Blaufränkisch). The Cab Franc contributes body, structure and rich red fruit; Dornfelder brings softness and dense, dark fruit; Gamay lends sleekness and spice; and the splash of Lemberger adds brightness, fine tannins and earthy notes. In the glass, the finished wine is sleek and spicy with notes of red cherry, raspberry, campfire smoke, forest floor and green peppercorns.

Featherstone's 2023 Gemstone is light on its feet yet full of flavour. A blend of 57% Cabernet Franc and 43% Merlot, it was vinified in stainless steel with full malolactic conversion before spending a two-month stint in oak barrels. All of this led to the wine's satiny texture and vibrant fruit character. Fine and delicately framed, it serves up plum, brambly raspberry, dark cherry and lovely savoury herbal notes, along with a kiss of oak spice.

Ontario makes superb pink wines, and Tawse proves the point for the umpteenth time with their 2025 Growers Blend Rosé. A mix of estate and grower fruit, it combines 68% Cabernet Franc with 25% Pinot Noir and dashes of Merlot, Gamay and Syrah. Deceptively easygoing at the outset with sneaky layers of complexity, the wine evokes fresh flowers, ripe melon, candied berries and a hint of tilled earth, with a luxuriously long finish.

SAKE

SAKE/RICE WINE

AMABUKI KIMOTO JUNMAI DAIGINJO SAKE

Saga, Japan

Amabuki Shuzo was founded in 1688. This sake was made using rhododendron yeast in a labour-intensive traditional method called kimoto. The result is a robust, opulent sake that can be served chilled, room temperature or warmed and will pair with dishes such as chicken teriyaki and spiced pork.

AMABUKI OMACHI NAMA JUNMAI GINJO SAKE

Saga, Japan

This sake is fashioned from Omachi rice; a strain that first emerged in the Okayama Prefecture more than 160 years ago and produces sakes of notable depth and complexity. The yeast used in the fermentation is called pink nadeshiko. Taken from the dianthus flower, it imparts a highly aromatic, floral character. This smooth, balanced, eminently enjoyable sake has fine acidity.

SHERRY

GONZÁLEZ BYASS NUTTY SOLERA MEDIUM OLOROSO SHERRY DO, Spain

Another arch-classic bottling from González-Byass, medium-sweet as advertised, balanced by the pleasantly bitter-nutty-caramelized flavours of such long, oxidative barrel ageing. The finish lingers on and on, and complexity is excellent in the category. Enjoy lightly chilled with cured ham and hard cheeses, or slow-braised game dishes with lots of matching umami. CHAMPAGNE

FRANÇOIS SECONDE GRAND CRU BRUT ROSÉ CHAMPAGNE

AOC, France, bottled Feb. 2024

[Though not the same bottling as reviewed by William Kelley, this will display a similar complexity and flavour profile.] Disgorged in June 2018, the NV Brut Grand Cru Rosé bursts from the glass with an inviting bouquet of rose petals, Griotte cherries, red apples and orange rind. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, broad and fleshy, with a ripe core of fruit, a youthfully frothy mousse and succulent acids, concluding with an expansive finish. This is a charming, fruit-driven rosé ... Drink date: 2018-2028. Score: 90 (William Kelley, robertparker.com, April 30, 2019)
